AND WHEREAS, there are now existing certain building restrictions which appear in said several deeds, and which are for the benefit of the several tracts of land herein mentioned;

AND WHEREAS, Helen S. Willard, and Amherst Savings Bank, are interested in said building restrictions as mortgagees;

AND WHEREAS, the owners of the aforesaid mentioned parcels of land and said mortgagees are mutually and individually desirous of removing said restrictions, so that said several owners, their heirs, successors and assigns, will hereafter hold said properties free from said restrictions;

NOW THEREFORE, said parties do hereby, for themselves, their heirs, successors and assigns, collectively and individually release and forever quitclaim unto each and every other party hereto, their heirs, successors and assigns, individually, said building restrictions as set forth in the several deeds above mentioned, and any and all other building restrictions affecting the real estate abutting on the Easterly boundary of said East Pleasant Street.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals this twenty-first day of June, 1941.
